Application Form

Describe specific examples showing how you have used the Six Pillars of Character Counts. Feel free to use additional paper for more room. Please type or write legibly. For example, I accidentally ran through my neighbor's garden, chasing a fly ball, and trampled some flowers. I went to them, admitted what I had done, and asked what I could do to fix the damage. I now help weed the garden until the end of this summer. This is responsibility.
